

As a resident and voter in the state of Indiana, we as a state have made it clear our privacy is very important, thus the Telephone Privacy Law. To allow a reversal or amendment to this law on the behalf of any business would demonstrate the FCC is no longer intrested in the consumers best interest, only the interests of corporate America. When is enough enough? Leave us alone at home to enjoy what little privacy is left. Thanks for listening.